MASTER OF CEREMONIES: Good Evening Ladies and Gentlemen. Welcome to the Krewe of Antheia inaugural ball. Tonight, we will celebrate “Girls Just Wanna Have Fun”. My name is Trey Brownfield, and I will be your Master of Ceremonies this evening. We wish to express our gratitude to those elected officials and royalty from other krewes who have joined us this evening. A tremendous thank you to Andy Frisard and the Krewe of Dionysus for their support and guidance from day one. The Krewe is dedicating this year’s ball and parade to a founding member who lived life to its fullest and was lost to us too soon, Ms. Madeline Walker Miller.
